If the petitioner applies to any other Commandery, his petition cannot be acted on at any time within three years after his rejection, without the consent by unanimous ballot, of the Commandery by which he was rejected.

Only the fact that charges have been preferred, and not the name of the objector or the nature of the charges, shall be entered on the Minutes. Before the commencement of the hearing and on the request of the complainants, such charges may be withdrawn by vote of the Commandery.

DUES AND ASSESSMENTS

Sec. 51. A Commandery has the right to levy and collect such annual dues and per capita assessments as it may deem necessary to defray its expenses.

Sec. 52 (a). A Grand Commandery may fix the time at which members of its Constituent Commanderies shall pay annual dues. It may also prescribe the penalty for non-payment and fix the terms for restoration, but no member shall be deprived of his rights and privileges without due notice and an opportunity to be heard.

(b). The Eminent Commander shall supervise and determine whether it is advisable to remit the dues of a delinquent member because of illness, infirmity or financial inability, and shall recommend to his Commandery the remission of dues whenever he deems the same justified. If the Eminent Commander does not see fit to recommend the remission of dues of a delinquent member, he shall appoint a Committee of at least two members to make a personal call, if possible, upon such delinquent member with reference thereto. The report of such Committee shall be reviewed by the Eminent Commander, and shall be reported to the Commandery. The process of suspension shall be undertaken only after the foregoing preliminary requirements have been met.

Sec. 53 (a). Thereupon, the Eminent Commander shall see to it that the Recorder send either a certified or registered letter to the delinquent member at his last known address, giving official notice of intention to suspend such member, including the date and hour when the suspension proceedings will be brought before the Commandery for action. At the time when such suspension proceedings are brought before the Commandery, the Eminent Commander shall first inform the Commandery of all pertinent facts and circumstances regarding such delinquent member and shall exhibit the return receipt of the certified or registered letter to the delinquent member, or the unclaimed certified or registered letter, before any action shall be taken by the Commandery.

(b). When a member of a Commandery is summoned to show cause why he should not be suspended for non-payment of dues and fails to appear, the Commander can- not declare him suspended until the Commandery has so voted.

Sec. 54. The suspension or expulsion of a Knight Templar by the Grand Commandery, by a Grand Commander or by a Lodge, Chapter or Council, deprives him of membership in the Commandery and of all of the rights and privileges of Knighthood so long as the judgment remains in force. In that event that the suspension or expulsion is by a Lodge, a Chapter, or a Council, a certificate from the Lodge, Chapter or Council should be filed with the Recorder of the Commandery and entered on the Minutes, together with a recital of the fact that the member is suspended or expelled by reason of suspension or expulsion by his Lodge, Chapter or Council together with the source of information. If a certificate of the facts cannot be obtained from the Secretary of the Lodge, Chapter or Council they may be provided by oral testimony.

Sec. 55. When the suspension or expulsion is made or confirmed by the Grand Lodge, Grand Chapter or Grand Council, as the case may be, the Commandery cannot go behind the record or adjudicate upon the question of jurisdiction.

Sec. 56. When a member of a Commandery loses his good standing by suspension, expulsion or being stricken from the roll of his Lodge, Chapter or Council, and his suspension or expulsion by the Commandery is the result thereof, a certificate of restoration will restore him to good standing and membership in his Commandery.

Sec. 57. An acquittals, suspension or expulsion by a Lodge, Chapter or Council, does not deprive his Commandery of the right to try him for the same or other offenses committed either before or after his trial in the Lodge, Chapter or Council.

DEIMITS

Sec. 58. A Member, upon written request presented in open Commandery, is entitled to a demit without a vote of the Commandery, provided he is not indebted to the Commandery, and no charges are pending against him. Unless the Commandery approves an inquiry to ascertain the reason for the demit being requested, such request severs his membership. Dues shall not be charged during the period the request is held in abeyance.

DISCIPLINE

Sec. 59. The violation of Masonic or Templar Law, or the Code of Christian Ethics, shall subject a Knight to such punishment as his Commandery or the Grand Commandery shall determine, and the manner and circumstances of trial shall be those laid down in the "Forms for Templar Trials" by the Grand Encampment. And all the circumstances attendant thereon, including the effect of suspension or expulsion by Council, Chapter, or Lodge, and of appeals and restoration, shall be those contained in the Grand Encampment Code of Statutes,

When a Knight Templar has been suspended or expelled for unknighly conduct, he may be restored to membership on petition if the ballot is unanimous.

Upon the death of a Sir Knight entitled to funeral honors and upon his previous request or the request of his family, it is the duty of the Commander to convene his Commandery for the purpose of attending the ceremonies.

Funeral services of the Orders of Masonic Knighthood must be conducted as prescribed in the Constitution and Statutes of the Grand Encampment of Knights Templar of the United States of America under the heading "Funeral Service of the Orders of Masonic Knighthood".

ANOTHER COMMANDERY

Sec. 64. A Commandery may confer the orders upon a candidate elected to receive them by another Commandery, at the request of such other Commandery.

NEW COMMANDERIES

Sec. 65. A petition for a dispensation for a new Commandery may be signed by any Knight Templar residing within the territorial jurisdiction of the proposed new Commandery. Petitioners who are members of a Commandery need not demit, but may secure from the Recorder of their respective Commanderies Certificates of Good Standing under the seal of the Commandery showing that the member has paid dues for at least three months beyond the date of the certificate. The Certificates of Good Standing of the petitioners or their demits shall be filed with the petition. After action upon the petition by the Grand Commander or Grand Commandery, the Certificates and demits shall be filed with the Grand Recorder whether such action has been favorable or unfavorable. If the action is favorable, the Grand Recorder shall report the same to the Commandery issuing the Certificates of Good Standing. If the action is unfavorable, all demits which accompanied the petition shall be returned to the petitioners to whom they were issued, and all Certificates of Good Standing shall be cancelled and returned to the Commanderies which issued them.

Sec. 66. The petition and recommendation will be furnished by the Grand Recorder

Sec. 67. As soon as convenient after the Grand Commandery shall have granted a charter, the Grand Commander or his proxy shall convene the Knights of the new Commandery, open the same, and preside at an election of officer. Immediately thereafter he shall install the officers chosen, giving such instructions as he deems needful and proper; and shall require the Recorder forthwith to return to the Grand Recorder a roster of the selected officers, with the time of stated Conclaves, and a certificate of the fact of constitution, together with a list of members, to each Commandery to which any of the charter members belong.

COMMANDERIES UNDER DISPENSATION

Sec. 68. A Commandery under dispensation has the same jurisdiction and the same rights and powers as a chartered Commandery, except that it cannot enact by-laws; its officers cannot be elected or installed; nor can it appear, by its officers, in Grand Commandery; nor can they vote therein, even after a charter has been granted, until the Commandery has been constituted.

Sec. 69. Knights created in a Commandery under dispensation are members thereof, and sustain the same relation to it and the other Templars, as those knighted in chartered Commanderies.

Sec. 70. No Commandery can be constituted until it is provided with a suitable Asylum, properly furnished.

Sec. 71. The Grand Commander may issue his proxy to any Knight Templar in regular standing to constitute a subordinate Commandery which has received a charter.

MEMBERSHIP

Sec. 72. After a Dispensation is granted to form a new Commandery, the membership of the Knights who petitioned therefor remains in abeyance as to the older Commanderies to which they belonged, when signing the petition. They become active members of the Commandery while under dispensation, and when a Charter is granted, and the Commandery constituted, they continue to be members of the new Commandery and cease to be members of the old, except such as may have withdrawn before the Charter was granted and had their demits returned to the Commanderies which issued them.

PETITIONERS

Sec. 73. Petitioners for a new Commandery must file their demits with the Grand Recorder. Commanderies may, however, issue conditional demits to such petitioners, to become final only when the charter for the new Commandery has been granted, of which fact the Grand Recorder shall notify the Commanderies issuing them. And if a Charter be refused, the Grand Recorder shall cancel and return such conditional demits to the several Commanderies which issued them. In the meantime such petitioners shall not be liable to the parent Commanderies for dues.

Sec. 74. Any signer of a petition for a Dispensation may dissolve his connection with such new Commandery before a Charter has been granted; and, thereupon, his conditional demit shall be cancelled and returned by the Grand Recorder to the Commandery which issued it and his membership revives in his old Commandery.

Section 80: The Grand Commandery, upon the concurrence of a majority of its members present at the annual Conclave may revise, amend and alter these Statutes, subject only to the Constitution and Statutes of the Grand Encampment of Knights Templar of the United States of America, provided, it shall be necessary that the proposed revisions or amendments be submitted in writing to the
